

Population Density Change in Pennsylvania Counties 1980-1990

Between 1980 and 1990 Pennsylvania's population density increased by 0.4 person per square mile. A total of 32 counties experienced an increase in population, 35 counties lost population.

